

Call for Editor of the Southern Communication Journal

The Southern States Communication Association (SSCA) seeks an Editor for The Southern Communication Journal (SCJ) published by Taylor & Francis. Candidates must be a current member in good standing of SSCA and will assume the role of Editor-elect at the SSCA convention in Memphis (April 7-11, 2010). The SCJ editor appoints members to the SCJ editorial board, works with Taylor & Francis, provides bi-annual reports to SSCA, and will oversee SCJ's content for three years, three volumes (2012-2014). Interested parties should submit a letter of application, a statement of institutional support, and a current vita. The SSCA Publications Committee (Tom Socha, Joann Keyton, & Martin Medhurst) will begin to review applications immediately, but to receive full consideration materials should be sent via email not later than December 1, 2009 to Tom Socha, Department of Communication at Old Dominion University: tsocha@odu.edu (757-368-4114). Those interested and/or seeking information about the editorship opportunity are encouraged to contact Tom Socha to set up informal conversations at the November NCA convention in Chicago.
