

Assistant Instructional Professor - Communication

The Department of Communication in the College of Arts & Sciences invites applications for a non-tenured position in Communication.

Duties and Responsibilities

Teach 12 credits per semester as a communication generalist, including the three areas of communication education (Speech/Theatre grades 6-12), mass communication, and human communication as well as core curriculum in the Department. Possible courses to teach include: Techniques for Teaching Speech & Theatre, Oral Interpretation of Literature, Debate Theory, Intro. to Mass Communication, Intro. to Audio/Video Production, Media Analysis & Criticism, Intro. to Persuasive Communication, Small Group Communication, and Interpersonal Communication.

Teach in face-to-face and online settings.

Teach at the undergraduate level and develop integrated work with other department emphases while promoting a strong collegial and student-centered atmosphere.

Advise students, supervise student research and internships, and provide service to the university.

Education and Experience

Required Education and Experience – Time of Hire:

Master's in Communication or related field

Preferred Education and Experience:

Teaching experience in Communication, including online teaching experience in Canvas LMS.

Job Type: Unclassified, Faculty, Non-Tenure Earning, 9-month appointment, renewable

Screening Services (Background Checks): Your employment with Pittsburg State University is contingent on satisfactory criminal background and sex offender check.

Salary: $46,000

Position Start Date: August 7, 2023

Application Documents Required*:

1. Cover Letter
2. Resume

3. Statement of Teaching Philosophy
 4. Statement of Teaching Philosophy and DEIA
 5. Names and contact information of three professional references
- *Consolidate documents into a maximum of 2 to upload

First Consideration Date: March 25, 2023; position will remain open until filled

Position is not eligible for Visa sponsorship

Search Committee Chair: Gil Cooper (gcooper@pittstate.edu)

PSU will only accept applications submitted through this process.

Pittsburg State University is an Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action employer. We celebrate diversity and are committed to creating an inclusive environment for all employees.

The Department of Communication

The Department of Communication is in the College of Arts and Sciences and includes five undergraduate career emphases: Human Communication, Media Production, Multimedia Journalism, Strategic Communication, Communication Education, and Theatre. Also offered are an M.A. in Communication and an 18-hour graduate certificate that meets HLC criteria. There are 10 fulltime faculty and approximately 200 undergraduate and master's degree students. The department supports a communication research lab and is oriented toward experiential learning.

For more information, see the Department of Communication web page at: communication.pittstate.edu

Additional Information:

Pittsburg State University is a comprehensive, state-supported institution serving the four-state region of Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri and Arkansas. Located in southeast Kansas, PSU is within a two-hour drive of Kansas City, Tulsa, Springfield and the Ozarks/Branson area. PSU enrolls 5500+ students at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

For more information, see: <http://www.pittstate.edu>